

Ryan Burgess joined DCP as an Investment Analyst in 2019. He has 17 years of investment at experience. Prior to DCP, Ryan served as a vice president of T. Rowe Price Group, Inc. He was portfolio manager of the Smaller Companies Equity Strategy, an institutional stock portfolio focused on US small and mid cap stocks. Prior to that role he was an analyst covering chemicals, utilities, and construction. Ryan began his investment career as a portfolio manager at SouthTrust Bank and later was a portfolio manager at Evergreen Asset Management.

Ryan earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Alabama and MBA from the University of North Carolina Kenan-Flagler. Ryan earned the Chartered Financial Analyst designation.