

Roger Norberg

Director Equity Research

Thrivent Capital Management

Roger Norberg is the director of equity research for Thrivent Asset Management. Over the course of his career, Norberg has obtained professional experience as a director of research on both the buy side and sell side, and has served as a senior research analyst and portfolio manager. His sector area of expertise is primarily industrials and related real-goods-producing industries as well as consumer and technology.

Firms that Norberg has worked for prior to Thrivent include Wells Capital Management, Deephaven Capital, JPMorgan, Chase H&Q, and Piper Jaffray. His core investing philosophy is grounded in having a strong and consistent basis for conclusions, having a willingness to think differently and develop ideas independently, and a belief that long-term positioning offers the most opportunity for capturing price inefficiency. Norberg received a B.A. in economics from the University of Minnesota and an M.B.A. from the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business.
