

Eric Wittleder

Senior Vice President | Investments Infrastructure

Eric Wittleder is a Senior Vice President within Brookfield's infrastructure debt group with responsibility for origination, execution, and asset management for transactions across the Americas. Prior to joining Brookfield in 2017, Eric held roles at leading project finance banks advising on and raising debt capital for energy and infrastructure projects in the US and Latin America. Eric holds a Bachelor of Science from Georgetown University.