

Kliton Duri

Senior Portfolio Manager

State of Wisconsin Investment Board

Kliton Duri is a senior portfolio manager for the high-yield & leveraged loans strategy at State of Wisconsin Investment Board (SWIB). In this role, he is responsible for a wide range of sectors including airlines and transportation, autos and industrials, financials, homebuilders, and paper and packaging. Before joining SWIB in 2022, he was a managing director at PPM America for 15 years, where he covered corporate bonds, leveraged loans, and private placements across many sectors. During that time, Duri was also a regular investor panelist in several aviation industry conferences. He began his investment career at McDonald Investments (KeyCorp), where he was a senior investment analyst covering equities. Duri has over 18 years of investment experience. He received a B.A. and an M.B.A., both in finance and economics, from Cleveland State University.