

Matthias Hunkeler

Associate

Liberty Mutual Investments

Matthias Hunkeler joined Liberty Mutual Investments as an associate in 2019, covering the investment-grade telecom, cable, and media sectors from an international and domestic standpoint and the high-yield wireless, wirelines, and cable sectors. Hunkeler also serves as an SME for investments made within the private equity and structured products group. Before joining Liberty Mutual Investments, he was part of the firm's leadership development program. Hunkeler started his career at FactSet Research Systems, where he primarily focused on fixed-income solutions. He received a B.S. in economics from Hamilton College and an M.B.A. from the University of North Carolina's Kenan-Flagler Business School.
