

Joyce Lin, CFA

*Vice President, Research Analyst, Portfolio Manager
Franklin Templeton Investments*

Joyce Lin, CFA, is a research analyst with the Franklin Equity Group at Franklin Templeton Investments. In this role, she focuses on equity research and analysis of companies in the telecommunications, industrials, and life sciences tools industries. Lin's prior experience includes research in the midstream oil and gas, insurance, industrials, and financial services industries. Before joining Franklin Templeton Investments in 2014, Lin was a research associate at Cooke & Bieler, a value-based investment management firm. She is a CFA® charterholder. Lin received a B.A. in government and psychology from Harvard University and an M.B.A. in economics, finance, and international business from the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business.