

Alexander Moore

Founder

XM Capital Partners

Before forming XM Capital Partners, Alexander Moore was a portfolio manager of the equity relative value and event-driven strategies at Carlson Capital from 2010 to 2020. In the equity relative value strategy, Moore specialized in the basic materials sector, with a particular focus on agriculture, bioenergy, and chemicals; in the event-driven strategy, he analyzed publicly announced mergers and special situations such as spinoffs, carveouts, and reverse Morris trusts. Before joining Carlson Capital, Moore was an analyst at Brookline Avenue Partners, a multi-strategy hedge fund specializing in merger arbitrage, from 2006 to 2009. He began his career as a vice president in the Latin American research group at J.P. Morgan from 1999 to 2003. Moore received a B.A. in economics and Spanish from the University of the South and an M.B.A. from the University of North Carolina's Kenan-Flagler Business School.
