

Michael Plage, CFA

Portfolio Manager

Fidelity Investments

Michael Plage, CFA, is a portfolio manager at Fidelity Investments. He and his team manage over $200 billion in diversified institutional portfolios and retail funds. Previously, Plage traded corporate bonds before assuming portfolio management responsibilities in 2009 and served as a trader on the rates desk, where he was responsible for strategy and execution within U.S. treasury, agency, and various derivative markets. Before joining Fidelity Investments in 2005, he worked as a trader responsible for managing investment-grade, fixed-income asset classes, including mortgage-backed securities and other securitized products and corporate bonds and other credit products, and as a quantitative analyst, from 1997-2005 at Travelers Insurance, then a unit of Citigroup. Plage received a B.S. from the University of South Carolina and an M.B.A. from the University of Connecticut.
